

RIVER OF WORDS INDIANA CONTEST POETRY AND ART 2007

Deadline for the contest is
February 15, 2007
FOR GRADES K through 12

Each year, in affiliation with The Library of Congress Center for the Book, River of Words conducts a free international poetry and art contest for youth on the theme of watersheds. The contest is designed to help youth explore the natural and cultural history of the place they live, and to express, through poetry and art, what they discover.

ENTRIES MUST BE SENT DIRECTLY TO THE RIVER OF WORDS NATIONAL OFFICE.

Entry form and contest information can be found at www.riverofwords.org/contest/index.html

The National River of Words office will send all Indiana entries back to us in May. The Indiana judging will take place as soon as the entries are received. We hope to have the winners announced by June 2007. Reminder: students under the age of 18 must have the parent form signed to submit with the entry.
